20 SEPARATE AND ADDITIONAL AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

21 36. By alleging the Separate and Additional Affirmative Defenses set forth below, GE
22 is not in any way agreeing or conceding that it has the burden of proof or burden of persuasion on 23 any of these issues.

24 FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

25 37. GE alleges that said complaint and each cause of action therein fails to state facts
26 sufficient to constitute a cause of action against Defendant.

27 SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

28 38. GE alleges that the causes of action, if any, attempted to be stated and set forth in

1 said complaint are barred by the applicable statutes of limitations, including, but not limited to,
2 the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure Sections 335.1, 338, 340.2. and 340(3).

3 THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

4 39. GE alleges that the causes of action, if any, attempted to be stated and set forth in
5 said complaint are barred by laches.

6 FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

7 40. GE alleges that the causes of action, if any, attempted to be stated in Plaintiffs'
8 complaint are barred in whole or in part by the equitable doctrine of waiver and estoppel.

9 FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

10 41. GE alleges that Plaintiffs and others were negligent or otherwise at fault in and 11 about the matters referred to in said complaint, and that such negligence and/or other fault bars or 12 diminishes Plaintiffs' recovery against GE.

13 SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

14 42. GE alleges that Plaintiffs were solely negligent in and about the matters alleged in 15 said complaint and that such negligence on the part of Plaintiffs was the sole legal cause of the 16 injuries and damages complained of by Plaintiffs, if any there were.

17 SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

18 43. GE alleges that Plaintiffs assumed the risk of the matters referred to in said
19 complaint, that Plaintiffs knew and appreciated the nature of the risk, and that Plaintiffs
20 voluntarily accepted the risk.

21 EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

22 44. GE is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Plaintiffs misused and 23 abused the products referred to in said complaint, and failed to follow instructions, and that such 24 misuse, abuse and failure to follow instructions on the part of Plaintiffs proximately caused and 25 contributed to the injuries and damages complained of in said complaint, if any there were.

26 NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

27 45. GE alleges that if Plaintiffs sustained injuries attributable to the use of any 28 product manufactured, supplied, or distributed by GE, which allegations are expressly denied, the

1 injuries were solely caused by and attributable to the unreasonable, unforeseeable, and
2 inappropriate purpose and improper use which was made of the product.

3 TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

4 46. GE alleges that if there was any negligence proximately causing the injuries or
5 damages sustained by Plaintiffs, if any, such negligence, if any, was solely that of defendants,
6 firms, persons, or entities other than GE.

7 ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

8 47. GE alleges that there is no privity between Plaintiffs and GE.

9 TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

10 48. GE alleges that it gave no warranties, either express or implied, to Plaintiffs and 11 that neither Plaintiffs nor others ever notified GE of any claims of breach of warranty, if any 12 there were.

13 THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

14 49. GE alleges that said complaint and each cause of action therein is barred with 15 respect to GE by the provisions of the Workers Compensation Act, including but not limited to 16 Sections 3600, 3601, and 5300 of the Labor Code of the State of California.

17 FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

18 50. GE alleges that if there was any negligence proximately causing the injuries or 19 damages, if any, sustained by Plaintiffs, such negligence, if any, is collateral negligence, as that 20 term is used and defined in Restatement 2d Torts, Section 426 and derivative authority.

21 FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

22 51. GE alleges that at the time of the matters referred to in the complaint, Plaintiffs
23 were employed by employers other than GE and were entitled to and received workers'
24 compensation benefits from their employers; and that if there was any negligence proximately
25 causing the injuries and damages sustained by Plaintiffs, if any, such negligence, if any, was that 26 of Plaintiffs' employers.

27 SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

28 52. GE alleges that Plaintiffs' claims, and each of them, and this action, are

1 preempted by federal statutes and regulations governing work place exposure to asbestos.

2 SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

3 53. GE alleges that the products referred to in said complaint, if manufactured by GE
4 at all, were manufactured in strict compliance with reasonably precise United States government
5 specifications, and that the hazards associated with use of the products, if any, were known
6 equally to the federal government and GE. Boyle v. United Technologies Corp., 487 U.S. 500
7 (1988). Therefore, the complaint and all alleged causes of action are barred by the government
8 contractor defense.

9 EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

10 54. GE alleges that to the extent said complaint purports to state a cause of action or 11 basis for recovery under Sindell v. Abbott Laboratories (1990) 26 Cal.3d 588, it is barred by 12 Plaintiffs' failure to join as defendants the manufacturers of a substantial share of the asbestos
13 products market, to which asbestos products Plaintiffs were allegedly exposed, thereby causing
14 the damages alleged; and, should it prove impossible to identify the manufacturer of the product
15 that allegedly injured Plaintiffs, said purported claim or cause of action is barred by the fault of 16 Plaintiffs and their agents in making identification of the manufacturer impossible.

17 NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

18 55. GE alleges that, to the extent said complaint purports to state a cause of action or 19 basis for recovery upon lack of identification of the manufacturer of the alleged injury-causing 20 product, it fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action in that Plaintiffs have 21 asserted claims for relief which, if allowed, would contravene GE's constitutional rights to 22 substantive due process of law, as preserved by the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of 23 the United States and by Article I, Section 7 of the Constitution of the State of California.

24 TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

25 56. GE alleges that said complaint, to the extent that it seeks exemplary or punitive
26 damages pursuant to California Civil Code Section 3294, violates GE's right to procedural due
27 process under the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, and Article I,

28 ///

1 Section 7 of the Constitution of the State of California, and therefore fails to state a cause of
2 action upon which either punitive or exemplary damages can be awarded.

3 TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

4 57. GE alleges that said complaint, to the extent that it seeks punitive or exemplary
5 damages pursuant to California Civil Code Section 3294, violates GE's right to protection from 6 "excessive fines" as provided in the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution and 7 Article I, Section 17 of the Constitution of the State of California, and violates GE's right to
8 substantive due process as provided in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States
9 Constitution and the Constitution of the State of California, and therefore fails to state a cause of 10 action supporting the punitive or exemplary damages claimed.

11 TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

12 58. GE alleges that said complaint, and each cause of action therein, fails to state facts
13 sufficient to warrant an award of punitive or exemplary damages against GE.

14 TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

15 59. GE alleges that the "peculiar risk" doctrine is not applicable to the causes of 16 action attempted to be stated and set forth against GE, because the injuries and damages
17 complained of in the complaint, if any there were, arose in the course and scope of Plaintiffs'
18 employment by an independent contractor.

19 TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

20 60. GE alleges that at all relevant times, Plaintiffs' employers were sophisticated
21 users of asbestos-containing products, and that said employers were aware of the dangers, if any,
22 of asbestos-containing products, and that said employers' negligence in providing the products to
23 their employees in a negligent, careless and reckless manner was a superseding intervening cause
24 of Plaintiffs' injuries, if any.

25 TWENTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

26 61. GE alleges that Plaintiffs are barred from recovery in that all products produced
27 by GE were in conformity with the existing state-of-the-art, and as a result, these products were 28 not defective in any manner.

TWENTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

62. GE alleges that it had no knowledge, either actual or constructive, and by the application of reasonable, developed human skills and foresight had no reason to know of the propensities, if any, of any product allegedly manufactured, supplied, applied and/or sold by GE to cause or contribute to the creation of medical conditions or circumstances involving alleged injuries to the lungs, respiratory and cardiovascular systems, including cancer, mesothelioma, or any other illness of any type whatsoever.

TWENTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

63. GE alleges that the causes of action, if any, attempted to be stated and set forth in said complaint for negligence per se are barred by California Labor Code Section 6304.5, and derivative authority.

TWENTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

64. GE alleges that Plaintiffs failed to exercise due diligence to mitigate their losses, injuries or damages, if any, and, accordingly, the amount of damages to which Plaintiffs are entitled, if any, should be reduced by the amount of damages which otherwise would have been mitigated.

TWENTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

65. GE alleges that the provisions of California Civil Code Section 1431.2 are applicable to the Complaint and each cause of action therein.

THIRTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

66. GE alleges that unforeseen and unforeseeable acts and omissions by others constitute a superseding, intervening cause of Plaintiffs' injuries, if any.

THIRTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

67. GE alleges that each of Plaintiffs' claims, and this entire action, are preempted by all applicable federal law relating to railroads, their equipment, and/or alleged injuries and damages arising therefrom, including but not limited to the Locomotive Boiler Inspection Act, 49 U.S.C. sections 20701 et seq.

THIRTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

68. GE alleges that as a result of their injuries, Plaintiffs have received and will continue to receive workers' compensation benefits from their employers or their insurance carriers, or both, in an amount not yet definitely ascertained and determined; that the total amount of these payments is not yet known to this defendant; that by virtue of the California Labor Code sections 3850 and 3852, and related sections, the employers and their insurance carriers are subrogated to the rights of the Plaintiffs for any and all monies Plaintiffs may receive from this defendant up to the amount paid to Plaintiffs; that Plaintiffs' injuries arose as a direct and proximate result of the negligence and carelessness of Plaintiffs' employers, and the employers and their insurance carriers are not entitled to reimbursement for monies paid or to be paid to Plaintiffs; and in the event of any judgment in favor of Plaintiffs and against this defendant, it should be reduced by the amounts paid or to be paid to Plaintiffs by the employers or their insurance carriers.

THIRTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

69. The matters alleged in said complaint are encompassed within and barred by a settlement and release agreement reached by the parties, which operates as a merger and bar against any further litigation on matters raised or potentially raised in connection with the settlement and release.

THIRTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

70. To the extent that Plaintiffs have reached an accord with GE regarding this litigation and this accord was then properly satisfied, the claims, causes of action, theories of liability and matters alleged in said complaint are barred by the doctrine of accord and satisfaction.

THIRTY-FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

71. GE contends that Plaintiffs have released, settled, entered into an accord and satisfaction, or otherwise compromised their claims herein, and accordingly, said claims are barred.

THIRTY-SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

72. The claims asserted in said complaint have been settled, compromised or otherwise discharged and GE is due a set off.

THIRTY-SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

73. To the extent that Plaintiffs have previously filed a dismissal in court dismissing with prejudice all of their asserted claims, causes of action , and other theories of liability against GE, the matters alleged in said complaint are barred by retraxit.

THIRTY-EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

74. Plaintiffs' claims herein are barred based on the primary right and res judicata doctrines which prohibit splitting a single cause of action into successive suits, and seeking new recovery for injuries for which the Plaintiffs were previously compensated by alleged joint tortfeasors.

THIRTY-NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

75. GE alleges that Plaintiffs do not assert any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, and that no question of law or fact common to all the Plaintiffs will arise in this action, and that therefore Plaintiffs have been improperly joined in one action.

FORTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

76. Defendant alleges that at all relevant times Plaintiffs were sophisticated users of asbestos-containing products, that Plaintiffs were aware, or should have been aware, of the dangers, if any, of asbestos-containing products, and that the sophisticated user doctrine is a complete bar to Plaintiffs' claims against Defendant as a matter of law.
